

04 December 2013

Conference on “Prospects for Funding in the Spanish Economy”

Given by the Secretary General for the Treasury and Financial Policy, Mr. Íñigo Fernández de Mesa

Given the speaker’s stature in the field of public funding, the conference aroused great interest: 136 people registered for the conference, which had a final attendance figure of 86.

The participants followed the explanations of the Secretary General with interest, as revealed by the Q&A session following the presentation.